Hi All,

We want to pass this recent information on to all of you.

Access has been granted temporarily to a very small team to enter CLCC and whose job is to assess which homes have been lost and those which are still standing. There will be no personnel entering homes, just visual inspections of the outside so that we can begin to compile an accurate list of the properties that were lost. As soon as we have this information together, we will communicate this to you. We will hope to get this out to you by this evening or by tomorrow at the latest. Please do not try to contact the office to find out the status of your home in the meantime as this will only slow the process down. The team will not verify any other information about your home such as the status of utilities and alike.

We are very thankful to be allowed to get this information in your hands.

Take care,

Heike Wilson
